

CRCE Certification Practice test

Section 1. Federal Agencies and Regulations

1. In the section below- Write out the full name for the agency and then write in short answer form the purpose of the agency.
 - CDC
 - CMS
 - FDA
 - NIH
 - OIG
 - FTC
 - SSA
 - HHS
 - FTC

2. What is the Patient bill of Rights ? When was it enacted, discuss some of the primary components?

3. HIPAA – what is the full and correct name? What rights does a patient have under HIPAA?

4. If an individual wants to file a complaint related to HIPAA – who do they file the complaint with and what are the requirements related to filing the complaint?

5. Under EMTALA, a patient can request transfer only at the suggestion of the hospital.
_____ True
_____ False

6. Under HIPAA, PHI cannot be shared with law enforcement agencies without consent except under Court order.
_____ True
_____ False

7. What is the definition of “Fraud” and “Abuse”?

8. Define these antifraud and abuse programs
 - a. False Claims act

- b. Medicare Integrity Program
- c. Balanced budget act of 1996
- d. Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act of 2010

9. Stark I, II and III are common names for the Anti-kickback Statute.

True _____

False _____

10. Define Consumer debt and Debt collector as noted in the FDCPA of 1996.

11. What is the consequence for violation of the Fair Debt and collection Practices Act?

12. What four conditions are required for Regulation Z to apply?

13. Define the Healthcare Quality Improvement Act? What items must be reported by whom?

14. CLIA affects the manner in how tests must be performed, what level of testing can be performed and who can perform the tests.

_____ True

_____ False

15. Physician Quality reporting initiative – When was it initiated and what is the purpose?

16. The Joint Commission – what is the purpose and involvement in accreditation? Is TJC accreditation required for all hospitals?

17. The patient Self Determination Act – what is the primary objective? Explain the purpose and main type of advance directives.

18. Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991- TCPA- What are the general provisions?