Description:

To provide attendees with an overview of the Presidential candidates' healthcare platforms and key legislative impacts for healthcare.

Learning Objectives:

1. Receive highlights to each Presidential candidate's healthcare platforms
2. Understanding of key healthcare legislation that is in process
3. Learn of potential impacts to healthcare legislation

Presented by: Paul Miller

Paul has vast experience in the lobbying profession and in January of 2006, he introduced the first lobbying certificate program for the profession. Paul has led the fight to bring about changes to the electronic filing system for lobbying disclosure forms in the House of Representatives. Paul was also instrumental in shaping the debate on lobbying reform in 2006 and 2007. As chief spokesman and lobbyist for the profession, Paul met with leaders from both parties on the issue of reform. He has been a tireless champion in the fight to protect every citizen's right to petition their government through lobbying activities.

Paul has traveled abroad to talk with foreign leaders about their efforts to implement lobbying rules and regulations. He has met with leaders from Peru, Indonesia, Great Britain, Viet Nam, Czechoslovakia, Italy, Scandinavia, Poland, and Japan.

He has appeared on NBC Nightly News, ABC News, C-Span, CNN, MSNBC, The News Hour with Jim Lehr, and Lou Dobbs discussing ethics and transparency issues.
